Chief Legal Officer Kristian Berentsen Resigns

Chief Legal Officer Kristian Berentsen has decided to resign, effective 31 May 2024.

"With an entrepreneurial mindset, we have built a competent and dedicated legal team across our markets. It has been a privilege to be part of this journey and I am confident in Heimstaden's ability to navigate market challenges with a solid foundation for the future", says Kristian Berentsen.

"Kristian has played a central role in scaling a legal and governance, risk, and compliance function for us as a Pan-European company. We appreciate his efforts and are pleased that he will stay with us until mid-next year to ensure a seamless transition of key responsibilities", says CEO Helge Krogsbøl.

Heimstaden has actively started the process to find a replacement.
