Heimstaden Appoints Eva Møland Tørsleff as New Chief Legal Officer

Eva Møland Tørsleff brings over 27 years of expertise in Nordic real estate as she joins Heimstaden as Chief Legal Officer 1 March 2024.

Eva is a lawyer admitted to the Danish High Courts and Commercial High Court, earned her Master of Law from the University of Aarhus in 1996. She comes from the position as Head of Legal at Nordstern, and also carries experience from renowned Danish firms such as Plesner and Accura.

Eva Møland Tørsleff comments:

"I am thrilled about the opportunity to join Heimstaden, Europe's leading residential real estate company. Their ambitious goals in governance, digitalisation, profitability, and sustainability resonate with me. I cannot wait to contribute."

Helge Krogsbøl, CEO at Heimstaden comments:

"We are excited to have Eva join Heimstaden, bringing her comprehensive experience to our team. We are confident she will be important in our continued sustainable growth while further enhancing our company's governance, ultimately delivering value to our stakeholders."

Eva will be a part of the Senior Executive Management Team and report to the CEO.
